

Atom Man (原始人間)(11)

- 1) “BUZZ, BUZZ, WHOOSH!” The airplane that carries the mystery man Gamma lands on the ocean, arriving at the place he has been searching for – where Blackbird is.
- 2) “RAO-RAO-GA, GA, GA!” (screeches Blackbird). In an instant he transforms into the shape of a frightful human being, blocking the path of the plane. Some strange power emanates from the body of the giant monster.
- 3) “WHOOSH! TZING!” Gamma’s plane continues to be pushed down from above.
- 4) “What’s that? It’s just like the giant monster from Arabian Nights! If that’s so, I wonder if it’s Blackbird who stole the research of Doctor Ōta?” (wonders Gamma). Just then...
- 5) “GRRRRRRRRR! WHOOSH!” A perfectly round sphere comes floating across the sky. The sphere moves towards the giant monster. Then...
- 6) “SMASH” – it collides with the giant monster. The visage of the giant monster disappears into thin air.
- 7) It stopped Gamma’s plane from crashing at a most dangerous time. He continues to fly on with the flying sphere. Gamma...
- 8) ...watches the flying sphere fly off. “I wonder who was manning that mysterious spherical flying vehicle that helped me?” (Gamma remarks to himself). It is...

- 9) Doctor Ōta's daughter, Midori and the mountain scientist who had saved her, Dr. Dwarf. "Midori, can you recall seeing that plane before?" (asks Dr. Dwarf). "No, I don't know a thing about it," (replies Midori).
- 10) Here is Blackbird. "Having used the Atom Man machine - even though my giant self stood in the way of Gamma's plane - that orb still managed to interfere," (says a mystified Blackbird to himself), "Go, at once!" (Blackbird orders his minions off)
- 11) At the order of Blackbird, his minions' planes go in pursuit of the flying sphere that carries Midori and Doctor Dwarf.

And then...
