

Atom Man (原始人間)(12)

- 1) The flying sphere crosses the sky with a “VROOOOSH, WHIRRR.” From behind, Blackbird’s minions follow in pursuit. Inside the sphere meanwhile...
- 2) “Doctor, we are in trouble!” “There are a lot of black airplanes headed this way!” (exclaims Midori). “What? We’ll be okay, we’re slowly headed back to the mountain,” (says Doctor Dwarf). Just then...
- 3) “RAT-TAT-TAT” The planes fire their guns at the flying sphere. However, the shots go...
- 4) ...“BANG! ZIP! WHISH!” and are all repelled.
- 5) “Ah! No matter how many rounds we fire, the sphere is impervious.” “Even when we shoot at it, the rounds are all repelled!” “Look at that speed of the sphere, amazing!” (remark the minions).
- 6) “WHIRR! ZIP! WHOOSH!” The flying vehicle we’ve described begins to circle the sky. “ZIP! HISS!” What will happen next?
- 7) “SPLOOSH” “SPLASH!” The pursuing planes crash into the ocean one after the other. In the flying sphere...
- 8) ...(Doctor Dwarf says to Midori), “Have a look, the bad planes have been disposed of.” “Wow, I wonder why that is. They’ve all crashed!” (says a surprised Midori). “Well, the reason is, our rapid movement created an air pocket that I used against them...” (explains Doctor Dwarf).
- 9) “I created a sort of hole in the air, and all the planes fell into it,” (continues Doctor Dwarf) as the flying sphere heads back to a mountain in Japan.

- 10) Now we find Blackbird and his vanquished minions in discussion. “Yes, that detestable thing was the flying sphere. But, I wonder who was controlling it?” (ponders Blackbird). “It seems to come from inside a mountain in Japan...,” (answers one of the minions).
- 11) “I know, it is Doctor Dwarf, I am sure of it! Doctor Dwarf is the wisest man in all of Japan. Even so, we won’t lose. Now, let’s finish off Doctor Dwarf. This evening let’s ride the beam to Doctor Dwarf’s hideout!” (declares Blackbird).
