

Atom Man (原子人間)(21)

- 1) “Hey, come and take me on! Let’s see if you can grab the Atomic Staff!” “Ha, ha, ha, ha!” (laughs the super-hero Gamma). When Gamma gets into a rage, watch out! The Hooded Minions are knocked into a giant pile - flip-flop! Satisfied with his deeds, he asks Midori...
- 2) “I wonder where Robot Tarō is?” “Do you know?” (asks Gamma) “Yes, I know,” (replies Midori). “He’s stuck to an electro magnetic device and can’t move.” “If we shut off the power, he’ll be able to get loose and meet up with us.”
- 3) With this in mind, Gamma enters the electricity room and flips the switch “SNAP”, cutting the power to the entire hideout.
- 4) “BEEP, BEEP, BEEP, I’ve done it” (exclaims Robot Tarō), as he jumps free of the giant magnet.
- 5) Now appears Blackbird. “If I transform myself into an Atom Man and escape by the beam, I might have a chance. But, they will quickly cut the power, and I’ll be in a fix. Well, nothing to do about it, I had better escape by airplane” (thinks Blackbird to himself). Blackbird slips out of his lair...
- 6) WHINE, VROOM. The airplane is soon in the air. A few moments later Blackbird suddenly glances back. “Oh!” (he exclaims).
- 7) “Beep-boop. Today I escaped. I’ve been trailing you all this time,” (declares Robot Tarō triumphantly). “You! Well, I’m going to eject you from the airplane!” (threatens Blackbird).
- 8) “Beep-boop-beep, you’ll never eject me! Come here!” (growls Robot Tarō) as he lunges at Blackbird. “Whimper!” (goes the frightened baddy). While the two battle, with no one at the controls, the pilot-less airplane flips upside down...
- 9) WHIINE, SPLASH! The plane crashes into the sea. Robot Tarō makes it out of the airplane.
- 10) “Well, there’s no helping Blackbird now,” (says Robot Tarō). “Any human, even an Atom Man would surely die attempting it.” “But, I am a robot, therefore I cannot die. Goodbye!” With this Robot Tarō returns to where Gamma, Dr. Dwarf and Midori are waiting.
- 11) “Blackbird is now beaten!” (exclaims Robot Tarō). “Well done, well done. With this the baddies are done for,” (says Dr. Dwarf in praise of Robot Tarō’s hard work). “Well, how about we return to Tokyo in my flying sphere?” “Yes, thank you,” (the others reply).

12) They all climb into Dr. Dwarf's flying sphere. ZOOOOM, ZIP, off they fly, back to Tokyo.

This is the final act of the "Atom Man" collection.
